

The General Management of EFAFLU Bombas e Ventiladores, S.A. aware of the environmental problem establishes its Environmental Policy in the sense of,

1. Comply with applicable national and European legal requirements, as well as other obligations resulting from dialogue with interested parties;
2. Promote the continuous improvement of the environmental performance of the company's activities in line with European environmental policies;
3. Produce energy-saving equipment and prioritize the use of recyclable materials;
4. Promote a culture of environmental protection and sustainable development, through the prevention of pollution, the reduction of waste production and the proper disposal of those that cannot be avoided, nature conservation and the sustainable use of resources;
5. Make the organization's employees aware of the importance of implementing best practices to ensure environmental respect during the development of our activities.